

RESOURCE SCHEDULE BEGINNING MAY 1ST, 2017

Bridge House

Starting May 1st, 2017 Bridge House will launch an outreach team that will provide peer navigation and basic needs case management including benefit sign up, access to transportation, ID services, housing search and more. Access to basic needs case management services will be available to homeless adults at Community Table and in other community locations.

Bridge House will continue to operate the Ready to Work program, which provides a pathway to self-sufficiency for homeless individuals through paid work. For more information please visit the Ready to Work website or contact Tim Arnold at tim@boulderbridgehouse.org.

Boulder Outreach for Homeless Overflow (BOHO)

Boulder Outreach for Homeless Overflow (BOHO) provides overnight emergency warming centers during certain times of inclement weather. Call 303.605.8919 for a recorded message about location and timing or go to facebook.com/boulderboho

Boulder Shelter for the Homeless (BSH)

BSH closed for Emergency Overnight Shelter beginning May 1, 2017. Overnight shelter is available for residents in the Transition, First Step and Summer Bed Programs. Intake appointments are available on a limited basis. BSH staff are available before 10AM and after 5PM each day at (303) 442-4646.

There is a free bus to BSH Monday through Friday which leaves Walnut & 11th (Boulder, CO 80302) at 5PM.
